

ENGINEERING FAIR

Future City® Competition is a project-based learning program where students in 6th, 7th & 8th grades imagine, research, design and build cities of the future.

“We were able to let our creativity come out and work together building the city.”

~ Future City Student

Design solutions to the challenges facing the cities of the future!

Regional Competition to take place January 2019

Winner goes to the National Competition in Washington, DC in February 2019!

Who: Open to all middle school teachers & students

When: October 13, 2018
9 am to 12 pm

Check-In begins at 8:30 am

Where: SAP America
3999 West Chester Pike
Newtown Square, PA 19073

For more information about Future City Competition or the Engineering Fair, contact Mary Moyer at: darevmoyer@verizon.net

Learn more about the Philadelphia Region Future City Competition

Come join us for a fun filled morning of activities and demonstrations!

- Try out the engineering activities sponsored by local engineering firms, technical societies & universities.
- Participate in a workshop on making moving parts for your model.
- Check out models from past competitions built by students just like you!
- Find out all about the research resources available to help you write your City Essay!

To register, go to www.futurecityphilly.org and select the Engineering Fair link. Register by Monday, October 1.

